CHAPTER 40.

AN ACT to amend 75.145 of the statutes, relating to correcting faulty real estate descriptions in tax deeds.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

75.145 of the statutes is amended to read:

75.145 Any tax deed issued by a county or a city of the first class containing an incomplete, indefinite or incorrect real estate description, and which description follows that set forth in the tax certificate upon which such tax deed issued, may be corrected in an action brought in the circuit court in the same manner as actions for the reformation of instruments. Such need so corrected shall be valid as of the date of the first issue.

Approved April 9, 1949.
